Do you ship to countries other than the US and Canada?

Unfortunately at this time we are unable to ship overseas, but are working towards integrating overseas shipping into our program. If you are interested in purchasing from overseas please contact us and we will get back to you.

Do you offer wholesale pricing?

For wholesale orders please contact us via email at youneedtoknowclothing@gmail.com

What is your return policy?

You Need to Know has a thirty day return policy. We only accept merchandise back that is in brand new, unused condition. We reserve the right to refuse your return if it is worn, used, or damaged, and also at our sole discretion. We suggest that you send returns via UPS or FEDEX as they are both trackable as well as insurable. We are not responsible for return shipping charges, or lost or stolen shipments. Before returning your unused merchandise please contact us via email to request a merchandise return form. Merchandise returned without a return form will not be credited to any account. Please allow two credit billing cycles after we have received your returns for your credit card to be credited the balance owed less the original shipping and handling charges.

I don't see my question here...

Email us and we will get back with you as to any questions not covered in our F.A.Q. Thanks!
